

ABOUT THE COPS OFFICE TRAINING PORTAL

The COPS Office Training Portal is the online home of a growing catalog of interactive elearning opportunities and resources which have been funded by the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) and produced in compliance with its curriculum development standards by its trusted training partners throughout the U.S. The Portal provides law enforcement professionals and their community partners with unlimited, on-demand access to contemporary content and serves as a gateway to a variety of multimedia community policing resources at no cost.

From applying evidence-based policing practices to homicide and violent crime reduction to fair and impartial policing to tactical community policing for homeland security to ethical decision making and more, everyone from individual officers to training academies to entire departments can be trained at their own pace, at no cost.

Your entire organization can use the Portal to refresh and deepen knowledge, skills, and abilities, and learn about promising practices in a range of topics related to community policing.

New e-learning courses and resources are added regularly, in addition to information on COPS Office-sponsored in-person training and networking opportunities.

Courses are self-paced, and progress is saved automatically, so it's easy to start, stop and resume your work based on the demands of your day.

Multi-media resources are designed to be flexible learning tools to implement in however you need them – download and share or stream and learn online.

GET STARTED IN LESS THAN 5 MINUTES!

It's as simple as creating an account and selecting the courses and resources that best fit your needs.
