

New Perspectives on Community Policing

New Perspectives on Community Policing, an eLearning course, examines the key components of community policing: community partnerships, organizational transformation, and problem solving.

Providing an overview of the dramatic shifts and challenges faced by law enforcement agencies and the communities they serve, the course also offers problem-solving tools, examples of successful police and community partnerships, and numerous community-policing resources.

New Perspectives on Community Policing, a flexible, interactive, and relevant course, provides an outstanding opportunity for learners to gain new insights on community policing and its role in today's complex world.

Learning Hours:

4 hours

Target Audience:

Law enforcement, criminal justice professionals, and other community stakeholders.

Completion Standards:

Certificate of Completion awarded based on assigned learning hours and minimum 80% score on post course assessment.

Portal course sessions are active Jan. 1 – Dec. 31 of each year and course content must be completed by December 31 to earn your certificate.

New Perspectives on Community Policing

Learning Objectives

- Define new and emerging communities
- Identify community dynamics and structures related to new and emerging communities
- Explain the implications that new and emerging communities have on policing
- Define new and emerging organizational challenges facing law enforcement agencies
- Identify the implications that organizational change may have on law enforcement agency functions and capacities
- Identify strategies and philosophies that may simultaneously promote successful organizational transformation and the practice of community oriented policing
- Identify several emerging issues which impact community policing
- Explain non-traditional threats to the community through examples of crimes and disorder
- Explain the importance of community partnerships and problem solving elements of the Community Policing Principles as they pertain to issues and threats
- Identify the fundamentals of community policing and how they apply to change management
- Identify the role of perspective in proactive problem solving
- Apply R.O.A.R. to the module's interactive exercise

Cooperative Partners:

This tuition-free online training was developed in joint partnership between the National Center for Policing Innovation, formerly known as VCPI, and the Western Community Policing Institute (WCPI), and funded by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS).

Visit the COPS Portal and get started in under 5 minutes!

No-Cost | Web-Based | On-Demand